Adding Related Events to Research Areas

Complexity Level: Beginner

The is a beginner topic. You will need to possess some basic understanding and have some experience with Drupal content editing.

Overview

This document shows you how to add Related Events to research pages.

Table of Contents

- Step 1: Create an Event
- Step 2: Edit the Content
- Step 3: Add Research Area(s)
- Step 4: View Research Areas
- Step 5: View Related Events

Adding Related Articles:

- Step 1: Create an Event
- Step 2: Edit the Content

Step 1: Create an Event

Click on 'Content'

Click on 'Add Content'

Click on 'Event'

Step 2: Edit the Content

Fill in the details for your event.
Step 3: Add Research Area(s)

Start typing in the Research Areas box and it will show you options to choose. You can click on ‘Add another item’ to add as many as you need.

Click on ‘Save’

Step 4: View Research Areas

Click on the link below Research Areas to view events by a particular research area.
Step 5: View Related Events

The related events will now display on the research area(s) you have selected.

Adding Related Articles:

Here are instructions on how to add Related Articles to your research pages.